GUIDELINES

Attendance Policy: Attendance will be recorded only for enrolled students present on the days they attend the camp. A minimum of 7 days of attendance is mandatory for all participating students. Any mid-camp departures or late joining must be communicated to the Principal in advance.

Activity Essentials:

*All the students should bring their own yoga mats or any other kind of comfortable mats/bed sheets for the Yoga/Aerobics session to be conducted during the assembly every day.

*Students must bring all the necessary items for their chosen activities as the school will not provide them.

* It is mandatory to bring ID card, School Almanac and Summer Camp Admit Card.

*Students must bring their own lunch boxes and water bottles.

Transportation and Punctuality: Transportation to and from the camp is the responsibility of parents/guardians, who must ensure punctual drop-off and pickup.

Voluntary Participation: Participation in the summer camp is optional and depends on the student's willingness to attend.

Activity Participation Requirement: Only students who have participated in activities will be allowed to enter the classroom.

Complimentary Camp: Enjoy a cost-free summer camp experience, courtesy of the school management, for students in Grade I to VIII.

Dress Code: Please dress comfortably and appropriately for a range of activities, such as sports gear, T-shirts, and comfortable bottoms.

Note-

- Kindly bring only the necessary items for the activities, and refrain from bringing any money or making monetary transactions of any kind.
- Please note that the camp timings may be adjusted in case of extreme weather conditions.
- Students not participating in the Summer Camp will not be eligible for school-level competitions (Interhouse and Interschool)
- Please note that activity choices are subject to availability and will be confirmed upon registration.
